

I want to be TALL LIKE THE TREE...

TALL LIKE THE TREE

DELANEYGIBSON

ABOUT DELANEY

Hailing from the 'Storied Sea Town' of Ventura-California, Delaney Gibson ventured far from home to define herself and her sound in New York City.

Delaney, a singer/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist, set out to create a driven, confessional and uplifting sound. Her music falls somewhere in between the kaleidoscopic pop theatricality of artists the likes of Regina Spektor and the warmth of indie-folk performers a la Bright Eyes.

Delaney's songs are true parades of colors and hooks to die for, adorned by a wide sounding, yet understated production that aims to leave her dynamic vocals under the spotlight.

Her brand new album, 'Tall Like the Tree' will be released on 1.28.14

Let the songs tell you the rest of the story!

FUN FACTS

- The album was produced and mixed by Joshua Bartholomew and mastered by Grammy winner, Jason Mariani at Brotheryn Studios.
- Tall Like the Tree was fan-funded through Pledge Music. Delaney raised 144% of her goal!
- Delaney wrote over 72 songs for the album. It was recorded in 2 months in Los Angeles.
- Track 3--'Lions' won 'Best Music Video' for the 2013 LA Music Critic Awards.

TALL LIKE THE TREE

CD/Digital available January 28th, 2014

Digitally: iTunes, Amazon, Spotify
Physically: CDBaby, Official Website and select record stores

ONLINE

delaneygibson.com | youtube.com/delaneygibson
facebook.com/delaneygibsonmusic | twitter.com/delaneygibson

"If this record doesn't bring Gibson to the forefront of the singer-songwriter circuit, the genre should be re-examined — songs like these with a voice like hers are rare." - Ventura County Reporter

CONTACT

delaney@delaneygibson.com
805.444.9086